MR. T. A. TROLLOPE'S NEW NOVEL.
3 vols. crown 8vo, at every Library.

A FAMILY PARTY IN THE PIAZZA of ST. PETER. By T. A. TROLLOPE.

"It is fair to say that they are full of various interest, and that the three volumes contain more pages worth reading than, as a rule, do thirty volumes of the ordinary novel of commerce. . . . Almost every taste will find something to suit its wants, and we cannot leave the book without thanking the author for the amusement which he has given us."—Saturday Review.

3 vols. crown 8vo, at every Library.

JULIET'S GUARDIAN. By Mrs. H. LOVETT CAMERON.

"A really good novel. Mrs. Cameron is far too good an artist to rest content with anything but the very best work. . . . One of the purest, brightest, briskest, cleverest, and most original stories that we have come across for many a long day."—Whitehall Review.
"The reading public may be warmly congratulated upon the advent above the literary horizon of a new and exceptionally brilliant planet. . . . Charming fresh. . . . We advise everyone to read and judge for themselves."—Morning Post.

2 vols. crown 8vo, at every Library.

The NEW REPUBLIC; or, Culture,
Faith, and Philosophy in an English Country House.

"Both the aim of the book and the general vigour of execution render 'The New Republic' thoroughly acceptable. . . . One of the purest, brightest, briskest, cleverest, and most original stories that we have come across for many a long day."—Whitehall Review.

"The introduction of living personages under transparent disguises, to point the moral and adorn the tale of 'The New Republic' cannot be justified, and should not be encouraged. This is, nevertheless, a naughty world, and it is more than probable that the obnoxious story will be the first item to which readers in general will refer. . . . The parodies of some of our most conspicuous theological, scientific, and philosophical guides are unquestionably happy."—Illustrated London News.

3 vols. crown 8vo, at every Library.

JOHN LEXLEY'S TROUBLES. By JOHN W. BARDSELEY, M.A.

CHEAP EDITION, crown 8vo, illustrated boards, 2s.

READY-MONEY MORTIBOY: a Matter-of-Fact Story. By JAMES RICE and WALTER BESANT.

Crown 8vo, cloth extra, with Photographic Portrait, 6s.

TOM HOOD'S POEMS: Humorous and Pathetic. Edited with a Memoir, by his Sister, FRANCES FREELING BROTHERIP.

"There is a true comic vein in his comic poems, true pathos in the pathetic, whilst in some of his poems the pathetic and the comic are blended together in the very manner which his father had made his own."—Standard.
"A very satisfactory contribution to light literature."—Sunday Times.

Crown 8vo, cloth extra, 9s.

W. S. GILBERT'S ORIGINAL
PLAYS. Containing "A Wicked World," "Charity," "The Palace of Truth," "Pygmalion," "Trial by Jury," &c.

DYCE'S SHAKESPEARE.—In 9 vols. 8vo, cloth extra, 4l. 10s.

THE WORKS OF SHAKESPEARE.
Edited by the Rev. ALEXANDER DYCE. A New Edition, being the THIRD, with Mr. Dyce's Final Corrections.
"The best text of Shakespeare which has yet appeared. . . . Mr. Dyce's edition is a great work, worthy of his reputation, and for the present it contains the standard text."—Times.

PURSUANT to a Judgment of the Chancery

Division of the High Court of Justice, made in the Matter of the ESTATE of CHARLES ROBERTSON, Deceased, and in an Action "Park v. Park," 1877, R. 11, the Creditors of Charles Robertson, late of No. 10 Long Acre, in the County of Middlesex, Artists' Colourman, who died on the 28th day of August, 1876, are, on or before the 20th day of April, 1877, to send by post, prepaid, to Mr. Edward Henry Bartlett, of the firm of Messrs. Ford, Lloyd, & Bartlett, of No. 4 Mooney's Alley, in the County of Middlesex, the full particulars of the Defendants, Charles Park and Walter Prytmore, the Executors of the Will of the said Charles Robertson, Deceased, their Christian and surnames, addresses and descriptions, the full particulars of their claims, a statement of the accounts, and the nature of the securities (if any) held by them, or in default thereof they will be preemptively excluded from the benefit of the said judgment. Every Creditor holding any security is to produce the same before the Vice-Chancellor Sir Richard James, at his Chambers, situated No. 3 Stone Buildings, Lincoln's Inn, in the County of Middlesex, on Monday, the 30th day of April, 1877, at twelve o'clock at noon, being the time appointed for adjudicating on the claims.

Dated this 19th day of March, 1877. EDWARD SHEARME, Chief Clerk. FORD, LLOYD, & BARTLETT, 4 Bloomsbury Square, W.C., Solicitors for the Plaintiff and Defendants.

TO ENTERPRISING PUBLISHERS and OTHERS.—For SALE, by TENDER, the COPYRIGHT of a High-class MONTHLY MAGAZINE, which has been very widely made known throughout the country. Satisfactory reasons can be given for disposal of the above. Its present circulation is considerable, but might be indefinitely increased by an enterprising proprietor. All particulars will be given by addressing "ENTERPRISING," 62 Paternoster Row, London, E.C.

TO PUBLISHERS, &c.—EONA would be glad TO DISPOSE OF THE COPYRIGHT of "Unfortunate Tommy," a Story caused by an Accident (17), and would also like to make arrangements with some Editors or Publishers for the publication of a Work, entitled "Diamonds," or, Letty Forrest and her Friends; a Tale of Life, Love, and Labour. This Work is designed to promote the interests of the Railway Orphanage at Derby; but, though dedicated to one special interest, it would form an interesting Serial, likely to prove attractive to general readers of Fiction.—All communications must be addressed to EONA, Darlington.

MYTHOLOGY AMONG THE HEBREWS and its Historical Development. By IGNAZ GOLDZIEHER, Ph.D., Member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences. Translated from the German, with Additions by the Author, by RUSSELL MARTINEAU, M.A., of the British Museum.

"Full of curious and valuable information."—Athenaeum."This is a very remarkable book. The author has brought to bear upon a difficult and long-veiled question a singular amount of learning, as well as great industry and boldness."—Examiner.

"An extraordinary work, which unites the most various and conflicting qualities. Full of brilliant ideas, controlled by scientific method, studded with evidences of Oriental learning, and vivified by an enthusiasm for the Hebrew race, which shows itself even down to the choice of literary references. The author, an earnest and still youthful Israelite, trained in the school of the best Arabist of Germany (Dr. FLEISCHER), familiar doubtless with the letter of the Old Testament from his childhood, but with a comprehensive sympathy for Western culture. A book at which many will shake their heads, as destructive of the historical bases of religion, but which itself claims to elevate spiritual religion to a higher pedestal than before, and to restore a fresh and virgin charm to the venerable records of ancient Palestine."—Academy.

ENGLAND AND ISLAM;
Or, THE COUNSEL OF CAIAPHAS.

By EDWARD MAITLAND,

Author of "The Pilgrim and the Shrine," "The Keys of the Creeds," &c.

FROM THE NEW PREFACE.

"The production of this book was accompanied by phenomena of such a character as to leave no doubt on the minds of the writer and others who witnessed them, that it contains a revelation from the spiritual world which is destined to constitute it one of the world's bibles. Written under the control of a spirit claiming to be the same that spoke through the prophets of the Old and New Testaments, while intended immediately to afford a solution of the present European complication, it sets forth the existence and nature of God and the soul, the perfection of the whole Divine existence, the purpose and method of creation, and the object and character of religion. . . . It further points the place of the present epoch in the scheme of the world's development: the spiritual relationship between England, Islam, and Israel; the duty of England in the present crisis; and the high destiny which awaits her fulfilment of that duty."

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

Popular New Three-Volume Novels.

TATIANA; or, The Conspiracy. A

Tale of St. Petersburg. By Prince JOSEPH LUBOMIRSKI. 3 vols. 31s. 6d. [This day.]

DONE in the DARK. By the Author of "Recommended to Mercy." 3 vols. 31s. 6d.

MAR'S WHITE WITCH. By Ger-

TRUDE DOUGLAS, Author of "Brown as a Berry," &c. 3 vols. 31s. 6d.

"A thoughtfully written, artistic, and really enjoyable novel, marking a distinct advance on the author's previous efforts. . . . It contains some carefully wrought and really effective sketches of Scottish scenery and character, and fully confirms the author's right to a high place in the numerous band of our lady novelists."—Scotsman.

"There is a good deal of what is simple and natural about the characters, and, without making them too nearly perfect, the author has kept quite clear of the crimes and sentimental vices by which we were formerly simply disgusted, but are now bored."—Athenaeum.

"Decidedly superior to anything we have yet had from the author. . . . The advance she has already made gives the best ground for auguring well of her performances for the future."—Graphic.

RIDING OUT the GALE. By

ANNETTE LYSER. 3 vols. 31s. 6d.

"The tale is full of stirring incident, and one or two of the character creations—notably Singleton's sister Hadde—are finely conceived and artistically developed."—Scotsman.

SHE REIGNS ALONE. By Beatrice

YORKE. 3 vols. 31s. 6d.

"Bright and lively—free from affectation."—Daily News.

"Miss Yorke writes easily—her book is not wanting in signs of creative and analytical power."—Scotsman.

"The figures of Gerard Lauriston and Nora Powys stand out prominently, and enlist our sympathies from the first. Miss Yorke may be congratulated on having written a story at once readable and within the bounds of probability."—Sunday Times.

"Both in the conception and treatment of her characters, and in the dramatic feeling of the more powerful scenes, Miss Yorke evinces talent of a high order."—Pall Mall Gazette.

The WOMAN THAT SHALL BE

PRAISED: a Novel. By HILDA REAY. 1 vol. crown 8vo, price 7s. 6d.

"Decidedly well-written, attractive, and readable. . . . The characters stand out as if they had been pondered over and worked at; the circumstances are fresh and natural; the style is pure, and the thoughts refined."—Athenaeum.

"Besides the heroine there is another 'woman that shall be praised,' viz., the authoress. Praised for writing in English, for some passages of poetry, for some even of slang, for her boldness and tenderness of expression, and, above all, for writing a religious novel without shocking us with pious utterances."—Public Opinion.

"Well written; and the household of the thrifless doctor is described with humour and a considerable insight into character."—Daily News.

"The story is a pleasant one to read, and the minor characters are sketched with a good deal of discrimination and humour."—John Bull.

A YEAR IN WESTERN FRANCE. By M. BETHAM-EDWARDS, Author of "A Winter with the Swallows," &c.

"Although Miss Betham-Edwards has been often anticipated, she looks at what she has to tell us in novel aspects; she adds many fresh and interesting details, and almost invariably writes with feeling and animation. She was passed on from place to place with kindly introductions, as if she had been making a tour in the old times among our hospitable countrymen in India; and she spent much of her time under the roofs of French country-people, who took her among their humblest neighbours. The result is a picture of French provincial society which we are persuaded is the more faithful on the whole because the author is so frankly outspoken where her prejudices are concerned. There are few social subjects on which Miss Edwards does not touch with knowledge and sound judgment. She tells us of education and marriage, of the relations of different classes in town and country, of the feelings, prejudices, and ways of thought of the various orders of society. She visited a good many interesting places that lie somewhat aside from the routes ordinarily frequented by the tourist, and put up with a good deal of discomfort and inconvenience in pursuit of researches which seem amply to have repaid her. So that we can conscientiously recommend her book to people who intend to travel in the districts which she describes so agreeably; and as she has the art of condensing a great variety of information, it has the advantage of being at once practicable and palatable."

SECRET SOCIETIES of the EUROPEAN REVOLUTION. By THOMAS FROST, Author of "The Wicked Lord Lyttelton," &c. 2 vols. 8vo, 24s.

"There is perhaps no chapter of current Continental history as to which a readable and trustworthy book in English was more wanted. Mr. Frost has, therefore, undertaken a very useful task, and has performed it in a highly satisfactory manner, and which is certainly extremely convenient."—Saturday Review.
"The work is one of considerable interest, and contains, we believe, more information than any previous writer has ever been able to gather together on the subject."—Vanity Fair.

ON the TRACK of the PILGRIM FATHERS; or, Holidays in Holland. By J. EWING RITCHIE, Author of "The Night Side of London," &c. 1 vol. 7s. 6d.

"An interesting little volume, which should find a place in the knapsack of every tourist."—Daily News."Mr. Ritchie is a bright writer and a good describer, and his book is sure to prove acceptable to a wide circle."—Nonconformist.

MAHOMEDANISM AND CHRISTIANITY, MAHOMEDANS OF INDIA, MAHOMED AS A SOLDIER, CONSCRIPTION IN TURKEY, WAR WITH INFIDELS, &c.

THROUGH PERSIA BY CARAVAN. By ARTHUR ARNOLD, Author

of "From the Levant," &c. 2 vols. 8vo, 28s.
"Mr. Arthur Arnold's pleasant volumes will enlighten the reader. They abound with sound if sad information. It would be impossible by any number of extracts to give a just view of the multiplicity of subjects touched upon in his lucid pages; we will, therefore, merely content ourselves with saying, in no modern work can a more excellent account of Persia be found."—Echo.
"Mr. Arnold's travels, while commending his narrative as that of a shrewd observer and pleasant writer, who has brought back the latest news of the internal condition and aspect of a country which for many reasons possesses at this time a peculiar interest."—Daily News.

TINSLEY BROTHERS' NEW NOVELS.

Now ready at every Library in the United Kingdom.

NEW NOVEL BY THE AUTHOR OF "OLIVE VARCOE."

LOVE'S YOUNG DREAM. By Mrs. NOTLEY, Author of "Olive Varcoe," "Beneath the Wheels," "Simple as a Dove," &c. In 3 vols.

LOYAL and TRUE. In 3 vols.

"A novel which a mother may safely allow her daughter to read; it is marked by purity of thought and nobility of purpose."—Figaro."It is distinguished by a high tone and noble purpose, placing the author in the front rank of novelists."—Court Journal.

NEW NOVEL BY MRS. J. H. RIDDELL.

HER MOTHER'S DARLING. By Mrs. J. H. RIDDELL, Author of "George Geith," "Too Much Alone," "City and Suburb," &c. 3 vols.

ELMA; or, Fiction and Fact. By CORNEY WELPER. 3 vols.

"The heroine, merry Elma, as she is called, a handsome, well-formed girl of sixteen, is one of those feminine women, made of attractive metal, whom every one, people and 'dumb creatures,' love; one of the women whose destiny is to be irresistible. Others of the prominent characters, especially Anthill and Grindel, are vigorously drawn."—Pail Mail Gazette."Some of the episodes and characters have real merit. Plunger's Circus, in which Elma makes her debut, is excellently described."—Graphic.

NEW NOVEL BY THE AUTHOR OF "A WOMAN SCORNED."

The WAY WOMEN LOVE. By E. OWENS BLACKBOURNE, Author of "A Woman Scorned," &c. 3 vols.

LOVE WITHOUT WINGS. By Mrs. ADOLPHE SMITH. In 3 vols.

PRINKLE and HIS FRIENDS. By JAMES SHEARER. 3 vols.

"There are also many other characters, including divers merchants (the story, we should mention, points several commercial morals), a benevolent lawyer, a literary and fortunately reclaimable Magdalen, two young ladies who fall in love with the priggish young man, a Scotch gardener, and so forth. All these personages are depicted with a good deal of care, and show both observation and imagination."—Academy."The merits of the book consist mainly in the really clever way in which the author has dealt with the different scenes described."—Pictorial World.

CURIOSITIES of TRAVEL; or, Glimpses of Nature. By CHARLES ARMAR WILKINS. 2 vols. cr. 8vo, 21s.

"Will serve as an introduction to the study of geographical science, for which reason Mr. Charles Armar Wilkins deserves the thanks of all who are interested in the true education which enlists the sympathies of youth."—Daily Telegraph.

The EAST; being a Narrative of Personal Impressions of a Tour in Egypt, Palestine, and Syria. With numerous References to the Manners and present Condition of the Turks, and to Current Events. By WILLIAM YOUNG MARTIN. 1 vol. crown 8vo, 7s. 6d.

"A readable volume, not too large; and he has thrown into it a sufficient amount of that personal adventure we spoke of to give life to it."—Queen.
"Is a most valuable contribution to the literature of the East."—Dundee Courier and Argus.

MAHOMEDANISM AND CHRISTIANITY, MAHOMEDANS OF INDIA, MAHOMED AS A SOLDIER, CONSCRIPTION IN TURKEY, WAR WITH INFIDELS, &c.

THROUGH PERSIA BY CARAVAN. By ARTHUR ARNOLD, Author

of "From the Levant," &c. 2 vols. 8vo, 28s.
"Mr. Arthur Arnold's pleasant volumes will enlighten the reader. They abound with sound if sad information. It would be impossible by any number of extracts to give a just view of the multiplicity of subjects touched upon in his lucid pages; we will, therefore, merely content ourselves with saying, in no modern work can a more excellent account of Persia be found."—Echo.
"Mr. Arnold's travels, while commending his narrative as that of a shrewd observer and pleasant writer, who has brought back the latest news of the internal condition and aspect of a country which for many reasons possesses at this time a peculiar interest."—Daily News.

SPOKEN in ANGER. 3 vols.

"Spoken in Anger" is an attractive lively story, in which the author introduces a great variety of characters. Some of them, such as Vivien Stanley, Lady Evelyn, and Mr. Palmer, a young curate, are fine creations, and their constancy, honesty of purpose, and kindness of heart will be fully appreciated by the reader."—Court Journal.

NEW NOVEL BY MRS. J. H. RIDDELL.

HER MOTHER'S DARLING. By Mrs. J. H. RIDDELL, Author of "George Geith," "Too Much Alone," "City and Suburb," &c. 3 vols.

ELMA; or, Fiction and Fact. By CORNEY WELPER. 3 vols.

"The heroine, merry Elma, as she is called, a handsome, well-formed girl of sixteen, is one of those feminine women, made of attractive metal, whom every one, people and 'dumb creatures,' love; one of the women whose destiny is to be irresistible. Others of the prominent characters, especially Anthill and Grindel, are vigorously drawn."—Pail Mail Gazette."Some of the episodes and characters have real merit. Plunger's Circus, in which Elma makes her debut, is excellently described."—Graphic.

NEW NOVEL BY THE AUTHOR OF "A WOMAN SCORNED."

The WAY WOMEN LOVE. By E. OWENS BLACKBOURNE, Author of "A Woman Scorned," &c. 3 vols.

LOVE WITHOUT WINGS. By Mrs. ADOLPHE SMITH. In 3 vols.

PRINKLE and HIS FRIENDS. By JAMES SHEARER. 3 vols.

"There are also many other characters, including divers merchants (the story, we should mention, points several commercial morals), a benevolent lawyer, a literary and fortunately reclaimable Magdalen, two young ladies who fall in love with the priggish young man, a Scotch gardener, and so forth. All these personages are depicted with a good deal of care, and show both observation and imagination."—Academy."The merits of the book consist mainly in the really clever way in which the author has dealt with the different scenes described."—Pictorial World.

HURST & BLACKETT'S
NEW WORKS.

CELEBRITIES I HAVE KNOWN. By

Lord WILLIAM LENNOX. SECOND SERIES. 2 vols. 8vo, 36s.
Among other personages mentioned in the Second Series of this work are:—The Princess Charlotte and Prince Leopold; the Dukes of Wellington and Beaufort; the Earls of Durham and Carlisle; Lords Byron, Clyde, Adolphus Fitzclarence, and Cockburn; Sirs Walter Scott, G. Wombwell, A. Barnard, John Elley, Sidney, Harry, and C. F. Smith; Count D'Oysey; Dr. Dodd; Messrs. Thomas Moore, Theodore Hook, Leigh Hunt, Jordan, James, Horace, and Albert Smith, Beazley, Tattersall, Hudson, Ude, George Colman, The Kembles, G. F. Cooke, Charles Young, Edmund and Charles Keas, Yates, Harley; Miss Foote; Mrs. Nisbet; Mesdames Catalani, Grassini, Rachel, &c."This Second Series of Lord William Lennox's highly interesting reminiscences of political, social, literary, sporting, and theatrical life is one of the best books of the season. As a book of genial nineteenth-century gossip it is unequalled. Pleasant anecdotes, exciting episodes, smart sayings, witticisms and repartees are to be found on every page."—Court Journal.

MY YEAR in an INDIAN FORT. By Mrs. GUTHRIE, Author of "Through Russia." 2 vols. crown 8vo, with Illustrations, 21s.

"Written with intelligence and ability."—Pail Mail Gazette.
"A book that will well repay perusal."—Daily News.
"A pleasantly written book. Mrs. Guthrie appears to have enjoyed her visit to the Fort of Belgaum in the Deccan immensely. Those who know India and those who do not may read her work with pleasure and profit."—Standard.
"There are few books about India which in point of freshness of matter and grace of manner will compare with these volumes."—Scotman.

TALES of OUR GREAT FAMILIES. By

EDWARD WALFORD, M.A. 2 vols. crown 8vo, 21s.

"Two exceedingly entertaining volumes. Mr. Walford's book will be widely read."—Pail Mail Gazette.
"An entertaining, valuable and instructive work."—Telegraph.
"A very amusing and interesting book, containing a variety of remarkable episodes in the history of our noble families."—Post.

HISTORIC CHATEAUX: BLOIS, FON-

TAINBLEAU, VINCENNES. By ALEXANDER BAILLIE

COCHRANE, M.P. 1 vol. demy 8vo, 15s.

"A very interesting volume."—Times.
"An interesting, valuable and instructive work."—British Quarterly.
"A most valuable addition to the historical works of the time. It is full of life and colour."—Post.

LODGE'S PEERAGE and BARONETAGE

for 1877. Under the Especial Patronage of HER MAJESTY. Corrected by the Nobility, and containing the NEW CREATIONS. Forty-sixth Edition. 1 vol. royal 8vo, with the Arms beautifully engraved, handsomely bound, gilt edges, 31s. 6d.

"This work is the most perfect and elaborate record of the living and recently deceased members of the Peerage of the three kingdoms as it stands at this day. We are happy to bear testimony to the fact that scrupulous accuracy is a distinguishing feature of this book."—Times.

LIFE of MARIE ANTOINETTE. By Prof.

CHARLES DUKE YONGE. SECOND and CHAPMAN EDITION.

1 vol. large post 8vo, with Portraits, &c.
"A work of remarkable merit and interest, which will become the most popular English history of Marie Antoinette."—Spectator.

THE NEW NOVELS.

MIGNON. By Mrs. Forrester, Author of

"Dolores," "Diana Carew," "Fair Women," &c. 3 vols.
"Mrs. Forrester is invariably successful in the novels of fashionable life that she gives us. She presents graphic and animated sketches of the society of the day. 'Mignon' may reckon upon wide popularity, for it interests and amuses from the first page to the last."—John Bull.

ALL FOR HERSELF. By Shirley Smith.

3 vols.

MR. CHARLTON. By the Author of

"Anne Dyant," "Father Godfrey," &c. 3 vols.

"This novel cannot but raise the writer still higher in the estimation of those whom her previous works have most thoroughly delighted."—Messenger."A work of real merit. It is one of the most amusing novels of the day. The story is interesting, the style is animated, and the characters are faithful transcripts from life."—Court Journal.

DIANA, LADY LYLE. By W. Hepworth

DIXON. Second Edition. 3 vols.

"Mr. Dixon's novel has decided merits. Not a few of his conceptions are fresh and original; many of his scenes are highly dramatic; many of his descriptions show a keen faculty of artistic observation, and impress you with a lively sense of their reality."—Times."Mr. Dixon's powers are in many ways such as to lead the world to expect a good novel from him, and his readers will not be satisfied with what is less than content. They feel that they have a right to look for a story well put together, and a rapid succession of exciting incidents, and in these expectations they will not be disappointed. Mr. Dixon's book is undoubtedly original. The reader's attention is at once arrested, and his interest kept alive throughout."—Athenaeum."This is a book of extraordinary merits. A vivid and vigorous romance of real life. To say that this remarkable story is original would convey no adequate idea of its sterling newness and unconventional conception, design, and treatment."—Morning Post."Diana, Lady Lyle, is a most interesting novel. The heroine herself is charmingly, powerfully, and naturally drawn. The descriptions are fresh, vigorous, and picturesque. The interest not only never flags, but grows in intensity to the end. Altogether, Mr. Dixon's first novel is a success."—World."Diana, Lady Lyle, is a striking, powerful, and original work. It is a book of mark, and its appearance is one of the events of the literary season. Wherever novels are read, 'Diana, Lady Lyle,' will be read."—Sunday Times.

ONE GOLDEN SUMMER. By Mrs. Mac-

KENZIE DANIEL. 3 vols.

"One Golden Summer" has the characteristics of a good novel. It is written in an easy and ladylike style, has a definite plot, and shows a knowledge of society on the part of the author."—Academy.

The special features of this New Edition are—

The Poems and Songs will comprise many pieces which have not appeared in any edition, as well as additional stanzas to already published poems.

The Prose Works will contain a large number of important unpublished letters, besides the completion of many others hitherto printed in an imperfect form.

Whenever possible, the original MSS. have been collated, with the result that many valuable and interesting variations will here first appear.

The arrangement of the Poems and Lyrics in chronological order, detached from the Letters, will be exemplified for the first time, and with the exhaustive editorial notes, will lend additional interest to the poet's life.

Words requiring definition are explained at the bottom of each page, and the original channel of publication is indicated at the head of each poem.

An index of first lines, tables of contents, and comprehensive general indexes will be furnished.

Period III. CONSTITUTIONAL MONARCHY, 1689 to 1837.

ENGLISH HISTORY for the USE of PUBLIC SCHOOLS. By the Rev. J. FRANK BRIGHT, M.A., Fellow of University College, and Historical Lecturer in Balliol, New, and University Colleges, Oxford; late Master of the Modern School at Marlborough College.

This Work is divided into three Periods, especially adapted for use at Universities and in Schools, as well as for Students reading special portions of History for Local and other Examinations.

PERIOD I.—MEDIEVAL MONARCHY: The Departure of the Romans to Richard III. From A.D. 449 to A.D. 1485. 4s. 6d.

PERIOD II.—PERSONAL MONARCHY: Henry VII. to James II. From A.D. 1485 to A.D. 1689. 5s.

PERIOD III.—CONSTITUTIONAL MONARCHY: William and Mary to the Present Time. From A.D. 1689 to A.D. 1837. 7s. 6d.

"It is a relief to meet with a piece of sterling, careful work like this first instalment of Mr. Bright's English History. . . . A careful examination of its pages can hardly fail to suggest that it has cost the compiler a great deal of trouble, and is likely, in consequence, to save both teacher and learner a proportionate amount. For the use for which it is especially designed—that of a text-book in our public schools—it is excellently adapted."—Academy.

"An air of good common sense pervades it; the style is entirely free from affectation or inflation, and is at the same time tolerably clear and easy to follow."—Athenaeum.

"We do not know a book more suitable for school use, or one more likely to stimulate in boys an intelligent interest in constitutional and social history. We confess to having read the greater part of it with a very real pleasure."—Educational Times.

"It is written in a clear, straightforward, sensible way, and contains as much instruction as possible, put in a way that can be easily understood."—Examiner.

"It is a critical and thoughtful examination of the growth of this great nation; and while the facts are given always with clearness and force, the student is led to understand and to reflect not merely upon the events themselves, but upon a number of interesting and important considerations arising out of these events."—School Board Chronicle.

"A model of what a clear, attractive, well-arranged, and trustworthy manual of historical information ought to be."—Glasgow Herald.

"We can speak with entire satisfaction of the style in which the work is done. Mr. Bright's is a lucid, steady, vigorous style, which leaves nothing in doubt, and is comprehensive and thoroughly practical."—Liverpool Albion.

"Admirably adapted for the purpose intended, and should rank high as a text-book in all educational establishments."—Civil Service Gazette.

"Mr. Bright has done his work, as it seems to us, in a very careful manner."—Scotsman.

Now ready, each 2s. 6d.

SIMON DE MONTFORT. | The BLACK PRINCE.

In preparation.

SIR WALTER RALEGH. | OLIVER CROMWELL.
[In the press.] | The DUKE OF WELLINGTON.

"Mr. Creighton has thoroughly grasped the position of Earl Simon, and of England and Europe with regard to him, and he tells his tale simply, straightforwardly, with real discernment, and without any nonsense or affectation of any kind. The main narrative of the book gives, we think, as full and as true an account of the great Earl as could be given in so small a space, and Mr. Creighton fully redeems his promise of bringing out the foreign as well as the insular relations of his subject."—Saturday Review.

GERMAN ACCIDENCE for the USE of SCHOOLS.

By J. W. J. VECQUERAY, Assistant-Master at Rugby School.

"Simplicity in arrangement and clearness in explanation are the characteristics of this Accidence. . . . Mr. Vecqueray may be congratulated on having produced a serviceable school-book."—Pall Mall Gazette.

"The plan upon which this book is compiled seems well adapted for English scholars, many of the difficulties of the German language being cleared away or sufficiently explained at the outset."—Bookseller.

EASY LATIN STORIES for BEGINNERS. With

Vocabulary and Notes. Forming a First Latin Reading Book for Junior Forms in Schools. By G. L. BENNETT, M.A., Assistant-Master at Rugby School, formerly Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge.

"The choice of extracts has been skillfully made, and each is presented with an attractive heading. What is even more to the purpose, the passages are arranged in sections devoted respectively to the illustration of simple sentences, compound sentences, adverbial clauses, and substantive clauses; and all needful aids to construing are supplied in concise notes and a well-digested vocabulary. A more attractive book for very young Latinists we do not remember to have seen."—Scotsman.

A NEW GREEK PRIMER.

Crown 8vo, 2s. 6d.

A PRIMER of GREEK ACCIDENCE for the USE of SCHOOLS. By EVELYN ABBOTT, M.A., Fellow and Tutor of Balliol College, Oxford, and E. D. MANSFIELD, B.A., Assistant-Master at Clifton College. With a Preface by JOHN PERCIVAL, M.A., Head-Master of Clifton College.

"A glance at the book will show that the Editors, remembering how important it is that the early training should run on the same lines as the higher studies that are to follow, have kept steadily in view its preparatory character. They have at the same time bestowed much pains on making it as clear and intelligible as possible, whilst they have given special prominence to the laws that regulate the changes of sound. The learner's attention is also specially drawn to the Stem-theory, particularly in dealing with the various parts of the Verb and their relation to each other, and in the classification of the Irregular Verbs.

"It only remains for me to add that the book, being already in use here, comes before the public not altogether untested by experience, and that it has been subjected to the criticism of masters in other schools.

"At a time of educational change like the present, it is of peculiar importance that the grammatical foundations should be laid firmly and surely, and in such a manner that there shall be no lingering feeling in the mind of the learner that perhaps they are not quite sound. This Primer will, as I believe, contribute in some degree towards making this process an easier one for those who have to teach the elements of Greek, and, if so, all Schoolmasters will agree that the labour spent upon it by the Editors has been well bestowed."—Extract from the Preface.

INTRODUCTION to GREEK PROSE COMPOSITION, with EXERCISES. By A. SIDGWICK, M.A., Assistant-Master at Rugby

School, late Fellow of Trinity College, Cambridge, and Editor of "Scenes from Greek Plays."

A KEY, for the use of Tutors only, is nearly ready.

"A most masterly and complete summary of the chief rules for writing Greek and of the difficulties which the student will encounter in his task, is the feature of the work. In arrangement, in exhaustiveness, and in lucidity it is a model of what such a treatise should be. There is no royal road to the art of writing Greek prose, or indeed to any other art, yet we have seen learners acquire no inconsiderable skill with a celerity that seemed almost magical."—Spectator.

"Very few, if any, University candidates for classical honours could fail to derive benefit from a careful study of Mr. Sidgwick's notes and lists, which occupy about half the book; so that we anticipate a great success for this valuable and novel publication."—Athenaeum.

"Students of all grades, from the fifth form to the aspirant after first-class honours, will find the work most useful. . . . The arrangement is excellent, the 'Notes on Construction and Idiom' are full and clear, and the whole volume is redolent of sound and elegant scholarship. Its publication is a new departure in the teaching of Greek composition."—Examiner.

"One of the best and most useful books of its kind that we remember to have seen. The 'Notes on Construction and Idiom,' which occupy the first 100 pages, are admirably clear and suggestive, and useful not only for beginners, but for advanced scholars and teachers; while the Exercises (175 in number) are well selected and graduated to suit different stages of attainment, with just sufficient assistance at the foot of each towards some of the more difficult idioms, and a good English-Greek vocabulary at the end of the book."—Guardian.

"The rules are clear, and abundantly illustrated. The exercises are not short detached sentences, but complete tales or narratives. The book is, of its kind, the best we have ever seen."—Nonconformist.

"Schoolmasters will no longer have the excuse of the want of a good book to put into the hands of their pupils. . . . The notes on idiom are particularly useful."—John Bull.
